Accessibility Statement

The Parish Council is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

This accessibility statement applies to www.stburyanlamorna-pc.gov.uk

Using our website

We want as many people as possible to be able to use our website. For example, that means you should be able to:

- Zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen
- Navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- Navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- Listen to most of the website using a screen reader (including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA and VoiceOver)

We also work to make the website text as simple as possible to understand.

AbilityNet provides guidance on how to make your device easier to use:

Note that the parish council is not responsible for the content or accessibility of external sites that we provide links to.

Compliance status

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.2 AA standard, due to the non-compliances listed below.

Non-accessible content

The content listed below is non-accessible for the following reasons:

- (a) non-compliance with the accessibility regulations
 - Some pdf documents may not be fully accessible to screen reader software
 - Some images may not have appropriate alternative text, we are working to rectify this as soon as possible

- Web pages may not follow proper heading structures, label associations or list ordering. We are working to rectify this as soon as possible.
- There may be redundant links and some contrast errors. We are working to rectify this as soon as possible.

(b) disproportionate burden

At present, the council has not identified any content where fixing accessibility issues would be a disproportionate burden.

(c) the content is not within the scope of the accessibility regulations

Archived documents published before 23 September 2018 are exempt from the regulations.

Preparation of this accessibility statement

This statement was prepared on 15 February 2026.

The website was evaluated by means of a self-assessment carried out by St Buryan Lamorna Parish Council.

The statement was last reviewed on 15 February 2026.
